

POLICY TITLE: CHILD SAFETY AND WELLBEING POLICY

DEVELOPED/REVIEWED BY

Vice Principal Wellbeing
Human Resources Manager
Senior Leadership Team

REVIEW SUMMARY

The purpose of this Policy is to demonstrate the strong commitment of The King David School to the care, safety, and wellbeing of all students, children, young people and young adults attending/visiting our School. It provides an outline of the policies, procedures, actions, and strategies that will be implemented to ensure that a child safe culture is championed and modelled at all levels of the School, to keep students safe from harm, including all forms of abuse in our School environment, on campus, online and in other locations provided by the School.

This Policy considers relevant legislative requirements within the state of Victoria, including the specific requirements of the Child Safe Standards as set out in Ministerial Order No. 1359.

This Policy applies to school staff, including school employees, volunteers, and contractors. It should be read in conjunction with the following related school policies and procedures:

1. PROTECT: Identifying and Responding to Abuse – Reporting obligations
2. Safeguarding Children and Young People Code of Conduct
3. Reportable Conduct Policy
4. Mandatory reporting Policy

DOCUMENT DEVELOPMENT PROCESS

This document was first developed by Vice Principal Wellbeing, David Opat, and Human Resources Manager, Cathy Kaiserman, in March 2022 based on the upcoming revised Child Safe Standards. It has gone under a subsequent review by Vice Principal Wellbeing, David Opat and Human Resources Manager, Sarah Egan in May 2024.

RATIONALE

All children and young people who come to The King David School have a right to feel and be safe. The King David School is committed to providing an environment that promotes the safety, wellbeing and inclusion of children with diverse needs and/or backgrounds, and protects them from abuse, harm, neglect, and the threat of harm. The School has a zero tolerance of child abuse (in any form), and is committed to acting in students' best interests, keeping them safe from harm, and enabling them to participate in decisions that affect their lives.

The School regards its Child safety and protection responsibilities with the utmost importance and is committed to providing the necessary resources to ensure compliance with all relevant child safety and wellbeing laws and regulations and maintaining a child safe culture.

Name of Document: Child Safety &amp; Wellbeing Policy	Version No. 2	Date: May 2024	Authorised by: KDS School Council 20 May 2024
--	----------------------	-----------------------	--

Each member of the School community has a responsibility to understand the important and specific role that they play individually, and collectively, to ensure that the wellbeing and safety of all students is at the forefront of all that they do, and every decision that they make.

DEFINITIONS

child	A child who is under the age of 14 years.
young person	A person from 14 – 17 years of age.
young adult	A person from 18 – 22 years of age.
child abuse	(a) Any act committed against a child involving: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(i) a sexual offence</li> <li>(ii) an offence under section 49B (2) of the Crimes Act 1958 (grooming)</li> </ul> (b) The infliction, on a child, of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(i) physical violence</li> <li>(ii) serious emotional or psychological harm</li> </ul> (c) Serious neglect of a child
child safety	Encompasses matters related to protecting all children from child abuse, managing the risk of child abuse, providing support to a child at risk of child abuse, and responding to suspicions, incidents, disclosures, or allegations of child abuse (Ministerial Order No. 1359)
child neglect	A failure to provide the child with an adequate standard of nutrition, medical care, clothing, shelter or supervision to the extent that the health and physical development of the child is significantly impaired or placed at serious risk ( PROTECT: Identifying and responding to all forms of abuse in Victorian schools ).
child physical abuse	Consists of any non-accidental infliction of physical violence on a child by any person ( PROTECT: Identifying and responding to all forms of abuse in Victorian schools ).
child sexual abuse	When a person uses power or authority over a child to involve them in sexual activity. It can include a wide range of sexual activity and does not always involve physical contact or force ( PROTECT: Identifying and responding to all forms of abuse in Victorian schools ).
emotional child abuse	Occurs when a child is repeatedly rejected, isolated or frightened by threats, or by witnessing family violence ( PROTECT: Identifying and responding to all forms of abuse in Victorian schools ).
grooming	When a person engages in predatory conduct to prepare a child for sexual activity at a later date. It can include communication and/or attempting to befriend or establish a relationship or other emotional connection with the child or their parent/carer ( PROTECT: Identifying and responding to all forms of abuse in Victorian schools ).
mandatory reporting	The legal requirement under the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005 (Vic.) is to protect children from harm relating to physical and sexual abuse. The Principal, registered teachers and early childhood teachers, school counsellors, religious clergy, medical practitioners and nurses at a school are mandatory reporters under this Act ( PROTECT: Identifying and responding to all forms of abuse in Victorian schools ).
reasonable belief – mandatory reporting	When School staff are concerned about the safety and wellbeing of a child or young person, they must assess that concern to determine if a report should be made to the relevant agency. This process of considering all relevant information and observations is known as forming a reasonable belief. A ‘reasonable belief’ or a ‘belief on reasonable grounds’ is not the same as having proof but is more than mere rumour or speculation. A reasonable belief is formed if a reasonable person in the same position would have formed the belief on the same grounds ( PROTECT: Identifying and responding to all forms of abuse in Victorian schools ).

reasonable belief – reportable conduct scheme	When a person has a reasonable belief that a worker/volunteer has committed reportable conduct or misconduct that may involve reportable conduct. A reasonable belief is more than suspicion and there must be some objective basis for the belief. It does not necessitate proof or require certainty. NOTE: the difference between the reasonable belief definitions under mandatory reporting and the reportable conduct scheme is the category of persons who are required to, or can, form the reasonable belief which forms the basis for a report.
reportable conduct	Five types of reportable conduct are listed in the Child Wellbeing and Safety Act 2005 (Vic.) (as amended by the Children Legislation Amendment (Reportable Conduct) Act 2017). These include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. sexual offences (against, with or in the presence of a child)</li> <li>2. sexual misconduct (against, with or in the presence of a child)</li> <li>3. physical violence (against, with or in the presence of a child)</li> <li>4. behaviour that is likely to cause significant emotional or psychological harm</li> <li>5. significant neglect</li> </ol>
school environment	Any of the following physical, online, or virtual places used during or outside School hours: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• a campus of the School</li> <li>• online or virtual school environments made available or authorised by The King David School for use by a child or student (including email, intranet systems, software, applications, collaboration tools and online services)</li> <li>• other locations provided by the School or through a third-party provider for a child or student to use including, but not limited to, locations used for school camps, approved homestay accommodation, delivery of education and training, sporting events, excursions, competitions, and other events. (Ministerial Order No. 1359)</li> </ul>
school staff	An individual working in the School environment who is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• directly engaged or employed by a school governing authority</li> <li>• a contracted service provider engaged to perform child-related work for The King David School (Ministerial Order No. 1359)</li> </ul>
volunteer	A person who performs work without remuneration or reward for The King David School in the School environment.

PRINCIPLES/GUIDING PRINCIPLES

The following principles underpin our commitment to child safety and wellbeing at The King David School:

- All students deserve, as a fundamental right, safety, and protection from all forms of abuse and neglect
- Our School works in partnership with families and the community to ensure that they are engaged in decision-making processes, particularly those that have an impact on child safety and wellbeing and protection
- All students have the right to a thorough and systematic education in all aspects of personal safety, in partnership with their parents/guardians/carers
- All adults in our School, including teaching and non-teaching staff, volunteers, and contractors, have a responsibility to care for children and young people, to positively promote their wellbeing, to identify and mitigate risks related to child safety and wellbeing in the School environment and to protect them from any kind of harm or abuse
- The policies, guidelines, and codes of conduct for the care, wellbeing and protection of students are based on honest, respectful, and trusting relationships between adults and children and young people
- Policies and practices demonstrate compliance with legislative requirements and cooperation with, governments, the police, and human services agencies

- All persons involved in situations where harm is suspected or disclosed must be treated with sensitivity, dignity, and respect
- All members of the School community (including students and their families) are kept informed of child safety and wellbeing matters (where appropriate) and are involved in promoting child safety and wellbeing
- Staff, volunteers, contractors, parents, and students should feel free to raise concerns about child safety and wellbeing, knowing these will be taken seriously by School leadership

Appropriate confidentiality will be maintained, with information being provided to those who have a right or a need to be informed, either legally (including under legislated information sharing schemes being Child Information Sharing Scheme (CISS) or Family Violence Information Sharing Scheme (FVISS) or pastorally.

POLICY COMMITMENTS

All students enrolled at The King David School have the right to feel safe and be safe. The safety and wellbeing of children in our care will always be our first priority and we do not and will not tolerate child abuse. We aim to create a child-safe and child-friendly environment where children are free to enjoy life to the full without any concern for their safety. There is particular attention paid to the most vulnerable children, including Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children, children from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds, children with a disability, children who are unable to live at home, international students, and LGBTIQ+ students.

Our commitment to our students

- We commit to the safety and wellbeing of all children, young people and young adults enrolled in our School
- We commit to providing children, young people, and young adults with positive and nurturing experiences
- We commit to listening to children, young people, and young adults and empowering them by ensuring that they understand their rights (including to safety, information, and participation), and by taking their views seriously and addressing any concerns that they raise with us
- We commit to taking action to ensure that children, young people, and young adults are protected from abuse or harm
- We commit to ensuring that the needs of all children, young people, and young adults enrolled in our School are met, including those who are most vulnerable
- We commit to actively supporting all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children to express their culture and enjoy their cultural rights
- We commit to recognising the importance of friendships and to encouraging support from peers, to help children, young people, and young adults feel safe and less isolated
- We commit to developing a culture that facilitates and provides opportunities for children, young people, and young adult participation, and that strengthens the confidence and engagement of children, young people and young adults by being responsive to their input
- We commit to teaching children, young people, and young adults the necessary skills and knowledge to understand and maintain their personal safety and wellbeing
- We commit to seeking input and feedback from students regarding the creation of a safe school environment

Our commitment to parents, guardians, and carers

- We commit to communicating honestly and openly with parents, guardians and carers about the wellbeing and safety of their children
- We commit to engaging with, and listening to, the views of parents, guardians and carers about our child safety and wellbeing practice, policies, and procedures
- We commit to transparency in our decision-making with parents, guardians, and carers where it will not compromise the safety of children, young people or young adults
- We commit to open engagement and communication with parents, guardians and carers about our child safe approach and our operations and governance related to child safety and wellbeing
- We commit to ensuring that relevant information relating to child safety and wellbeing is accessible to parents, guardians, and carers
- We commit to acknowledging the cultural diversity of students and families and being sensitive to how this may impact on student safety issues
- We commit to continuously reviewing and improving our systems to protect children from abuse

Our commitment to our School staff (School employees, volunteers, and contractors)

- We commit to providing all King David School staff with the necessary support to enable them to fulfil their roles, and to ensure that staff are attuned to signs of harm and can facilitate child-friendly ways for children, young people, and young adults to express their views, participate in decision-making and raise their concerns. This will include regular and appropriate learning opportunities
- We commit to providing regular opportunities to clarify and confirm policy and procedures in relation to child safety and wellbeing, and young people's protection and wellbeing. This will include annual training in the principles and intent of the Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy and Safeguarding Children and Young People Code of Conduct, and staff responsibilities to report concerns
- We commit to listening to all concerns voiced by The King David School staff, volunteers, and contractors about keeping children, young people, and young adults safe from harm
- We commit to providing opportunities for King David School employees, volunteers, and contractors, to receive formal debriefing and counselling arising from incidents of the abuse of a child, young person, or young adult

PROCEDURES

Our School creates records relevant to any child safety complaints, disclosures or breaches of the Safeguarding Children and Young People Code of Conduct, and maintains and disposes of those records in accordance with security and privacy requirements and Public Record Office Victoria Recordkeeping Standards (including minimum retention periods). Our school complies with legal obligations that relate to managing the risk of child abuse under the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005 (Vic.), the Crimes Act 1958 (Vic.), the Child Wellbeing and Safety Act 2005 (Vic.) and the recommendations of the Betrayal of Trust report.

Child protection reporting obligations fall under separate pieces of legislation with differing reporting requirements.

Our school's PROTECT: Identifying and Responding to Abuse – Reporting Obligations, updated in May 2024, sets out the actions required under the relevant legislation when there is a reasonable belief that a child at our school is in need of protection or a criminal offence has been committed, and provides guidance and procedures on how to make a report.

Our policy assists staff, volunteers, and families to:

- identify the indicators of a child, young person, or young adult who may need protection
- understand how a reasonable belief is formed under the reportable conduct scheme as well as mandatory reporting
- make a report of a child, young person or young adult who may need protection
- comply with mandatory reporting obligations under child protection law, and their legal obligations relating to child abuse and grooming under criminal law
- understand and comply with information sharing and recordkeeping obligations
- comply with reporting obligations under the reportable conduct scheme including obligations to report and investigate allegations of reportable conduct

Our School has also established additional internal procedures and processes to help ensure that appropriate action is taken to prevent, identify and respond to concerns about the wellbeing and/or safety of a student.

Our School is a prescribed Information Sharing Entity (ISE) meaning that, where legislated requirements are met, it can share confidential information with other ISEs to promote child wellbeing or safety under the CISS or FVISS.

At The King David School, if any member of our School community has concerns for a child's safety they need to discuss, they can notify the school Principal, the Vice Principal Wellbeing or the School Psychologists.

If the Principal or Vice Principal Wellbeing are not available, then it should be discussed with a member of the School leadership team. Alternatively, any member of the school community may report directly to the responsible authority.

The staff member, supported by the Principal or Vice Principal Wellbeing will follow the step-by-step guide to making a report as outlined in the Four Critical Actions for Schools: Responding to Incidents, Disclosures and Suspicions of Child Abuse.

Students impacted by a child abuse or child safety matter will be provided with support to assist them feel safe at school and develop protective factors. Supports will be tailored to each individual student and circumstance. Supports provided to students at the School may include:

- Regularly communicating with the student or students and their parents/guardians/carers where appropriate
- Convening a Student Support Group of School wellbeing staff and teachers to plan, support and monitor affected students
- Developing Student Support Plans for students impacted by the incident to ensure appropriate levels of care and support are provided
- Access to counselling
- Referrals to external services such as family violence services, Centres Against Sexual Assault (CASA) or headspace

Where external authorities are investigating a report of abuse or risk of abuse, it is the role of the Principal to ensure students are supported throughout interviews at the School.

Screening and recruitment of School staff

The King David School will apply thorough and rigorous screening processes in the recruitment of employees and volunteers involved in child-connected work. Our commitment to child safety and wellbeing and our screening requirements are included in all advertisements for such employee, contractor and volunteer positions, and all applicants are provided with copies of the school's Safeguarding Children and Young People Code of Conduct, Staff and Student Professional Boundaries, Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy and the Mandatory Reporting Policy.

Each job description for staff involved in child-connected work has a clear statement that sets out the requirements, duties and responsibilities regarding child safety and wellbeing for those in that role and the occupant's essential qualifications, experience, and attributes in relation to child safety and wellbeing.

When recruiting and selecting employees, contractors and volunteers involved in child-connected work, we ensure that we gather, verify, and record the following information about any person we propose to engage:

- confirm the applicant's Working with Children Check and National Police Check status and/or professional registration (as relevant)
- obtain proof of personal identity and any essential or relevant professional or other qualifications
- verify the applicant's history of work involving children
- obtain references that address the applicant's suitability for the job and working with children

We will also ensure that appropriate supervision or support arrangements are in place in relation to the induction of new School staff into the school's policies, codes, practices, and procedures governing child safety and wellbeing and child-connected work.

We have procedures and processes for monitoring and assessing the continuing suitability of School staff and volunteers to work with children, including regular reviews of the status of Working with Children Checks and staff professional registration requirements such as Victorian Institute of Teaching (VIT) registration.

Child safety and wellbeing – education and training for School staff

The King David School provides employees, and volunteers with regular and appropriate opportunities to develop their knowledge of openness to and ability to address child safety and wellbeing matters. This includes induction, ongoing training, and professional learning to ensure that everyone understands their professional and legal obligations and responsibilities, and the procedures for reporting suspicion of child abuse and neglect.

Upon commencement and then at least annually, our professional learning and training addresses:

- staff's individual and collective obligations and responsibilities for managing the risk of child abuse
- preventing, identifying, and mitigating child abuse risks in the School environment without compromising a child or student's right to privacy, access to information, social connections and learning opportunities
- the reportable conduct scheme
- our current child safety standards (including this Policy, the Safeguarding Children and Young People Code of Conduct and any other policies and procedures relating to child safety and wellbeing, including in relation to managing complaints and concerns related to child abuse)
- guidance on recognizing indicators of child harm including harm caused by other children and students
- guidance on responding effectively to issues of child safety and wellbeing and supporting colleagues who disclose harm
- guidance on how to build culturally safe environments for children and students
- guidance on their information sharing and recordkeeping obligations, including under the Public Record Office Victoria Recordkeeping Standards

Diversity and equity – strategies and actions

At The King David School, we are committed to ensuring that equity is upheld, and that diverse needs are respected in policy and practice. We aim to ensure that:

- all School staff and volunteers understand the diverse circumstances of children and students
- our School provides support and responds to vulnerable children and students
- children, students, staff, volunteers, and the school community have access to information, support and complaints processes in ways that are culturally safe, accessible, and easy to understand
- the School pays particular attention to the needs of students with disability, students from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, students who are unable to live at home, international students, and LGBTIQ+ students
- the School pays particular attention to the needs of Aboriginal students and provides and promotes a culturally safe environment for them

Family engagement – strategies and actions

The King David School ensures that families, carers, and other members of the School community are informed about relevant child safety and wellbeing matters and are involved in the promotion of child safety and wellbeing at the School. We aim to ensure that:

- families participate in decisions relating to child safety and wellbeing which affect their child
- we engage and openly communicate with families, carers, and other members of the School community about our child safe approach
- all members of the School community have access to information relating to child safety and wellbeing
- families, carers, and other members of the School community can provide input into the development and review of the School child safety and wellbeing policies and practices
- families, carers, and other members of the school community are informed about the operations and governance of the School in relation to child safety and wellbeing
- families are invited to contact members of the School leadership team, teachers and all staff about any concerns

Risk management – strategies and actions

The King David School recognises the importance of a risk management approach to minimising the potential for child abuse or harm to occur and we use this information to inform our policies, procedures and activity planning.

We identify, assess and manage child safety and protection risks in all School environments, based on a range of factors including the nature of our School's activities, its physical, virtual and online environments and the characteristics of the student body. We use this information to inform our policies, procedures and activity planning.

We record identified risks to child safety and wellbeing in our risk assessments, along with the actions in place at the School to manage these risks. School Council, the Principal and/or Leadership Team monitor and evaluate the effectiveness of these actions at least annually.

The School has adopted a proactive risk management approach to child safety and wellbeing by developing and implementing strategies to identify and mitigate our child safety and wellbeing risks based on:

- the nature of all School environments including physical and online environments
- the activities students undertake at the School (including the provision of services by contractors or outside the School's physical environment)
- the characteristics and needs of all our students

The King David School has implemented the following risk mitigation strategies to ensure that the School maintains a proactive approach to our duty of care to protect children from harm and comply with our legal and regulatory obligations:

- our Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy and our Safeguarding Children and Young People Code of Conduct
- a comprehensive Staff and Student Professional Boundaries guideline, implemented through training and communicated publicly
- induction and ongoing training provided to the Council and staff, at least annually, about identifying risks of child abuse in the School environment, their obligations and responsibilities for managing these risks, how to report and respond to child safety and wellbeing incidents, and the School's current child safety standards
- extensive policies and procedures relating to excursions and camps ensuring that child safety and protection risks specific to excursions and overnight stays are identified and controls are put in place
- ongoing, periodic reviews of all physical School environments to eliminate physical isolation risks, such as solid classroom doors or rooms with no windows, or implement procedural controls where elimination is not possible
- procedures for verifying the WWCC clearance of all external providers and third-party contractors, who may have direct contact with students, to ensure that students remain safe in all School environments both internal and external to the School grounds
- clear procedures for reporting Reportable Conduct to the Commission for Children and Young People (CCYP) to ensure all specific risks regarding the likelihood of the risk event occurring and the potential consequences if it was to occur
- a system of assurance through which risks of child abuse, and actions taken to reduce or remove these risks (risk controls), are recorded. The system is also used to monitor risk controls and to evaluate their overall effectiveness on a regular basis

RESPONSIBILITY

Everyone employed or volunteering at The King David School has a responsibility to understand the important and specific role they play individually and collectively to ensure a child safe culture in which the wellbeing and safety of all students is at the forefront of all they do and every decision they make.

The school has allocated roles and responsibilities for child safety and wellbeing as follows:

Marc Light – Principal

Chief Operating Officer – Rod Kenning

Russell Kaplan – Vice Principal Learning and Teaching

David Opat – Vice Principal Student Wellbeing

Head of Senior School – David Robinson

Head of Middle School – Jayne Wise

Director of Jewish Life and Learning – Ilan Bloch

Director of Digital Engagement – Michelle Lazarow

Human Resources Manager – Sarah Egan

All Staff

Guide to responsibilities of school leadership

The Principal, the School Council and school leaders at The King David School recognise their responsibility to ensure the development of preventative and proactive strategies that promote a culture of openness, awareness of and shared responsibility for child safety and wellbeing. Responsibilities include:

- creating an environment for children, young people, and young adults to be safe and to feel safe
- upholding high principles and standards for all staff, volunteers, and contractors
- promoting models of behaviour between adults and children, young people, and young adults based on mutual respect and consideration
- ensuring thorough and rigorous practices are applied in the recruitment, screening and ongoing professional learning of staff and volunteers
- ensuring that School personnel have regular and appropriate learning to develop their knowledge of openness to and ability to prevent, identify and address child safety and wellbeing matters
- ensuring that the School has in place appropriate risk management strategies and practices that focus on preventing, identifying, and mitigating risks related to child safety and wellbeing in the School environment
- providing regular opportunities to clarify and confirm legislative obligations, policy, and procedures in relation to children, young people, and young adult's protection and wellbeing
- ensuring the School meets the specific requirements of the Victorian Child Safe Standards as set out in Ministerial Order No. 1359
- ensuring the School takes specific action to protect children from abuse in line with the three new criminal offences introduced under the Crimes Act 1958 (Vic.) and in line with PROTECT: Identifying and responding to all forms of abuse in Victorian schools
- ensuring the School understands and reports all matters that may constitute reportable conduct under the Reportable Conduct Scheme and in accordance with the School Reportable Conduct Policy
- sharing information under legislated information sharing schemes (CISS and FVISS) in accordance with the School prescribed role as an ISE
- ensuring that the School monitors and reviews the risks related to child safety and wellbeing, including evaluating the effectiveness of the implementation of its risk controls, on an annual basis

Guide to responsibilities of School staff

Responsibilities of School staff (School employees, and contractors) and volunteers include:

- treating children, young people, and young adults with dignity and respect, acting with propriety, providing a duty of care, and protecting children, young people, and young adults in their care
- following the legislative and internal School policies, procedures, and processes in the course of their work, if they form a reasonable belief that a child, young person, or young adult has been or is being abused or neglected
- providing a physically and psychologically safe environment where the wellbeing of children, young people, and young adults is nurtured

- undertaking regular training and education to understand their individual responsibilities in relation to child safety, and the wellbeing of children, young people, and young adults, including ways to prevent, identify and mitigate risks relating to child safety and wellbeing
- assisting children, young people, and young adults to develop positive, responsible, and caring attitudes and behaviours which recognise the rights of all people to be safe and free from abuse
- following the School Safeguarding Children and Young People Code of Conduct
- where risks of child abuse are identified, ensuring that action is taken to mitigate against those risks and that risks and actions are appropriately recorded

Organisational arrangements

The Principal has the overall leadership role in monitoring and responding to the policy, procedures and practices for child safety and wellbeing in The King David School in accordance with this Policy.

We have appointed a Vice Principal Wellbeing who is the Senior Child Safety Officer for the School. Key responsibilities include:

- being a first point of contact for all child safety concerns or queries for the wider community
- ensuring that other Child Safety Officers understand and comply with their key responsibilities
- ensuring that all staff undergo appropriate annual training in child safety and reporting obligations
- coordinating the School's response to child safety incidents in consultation with the Principal and the Leadership Team
- ensuring that the School's Child Safety and Wellbeing policies and procedures are effectively implemented and communicated to all relevant stakeholders

The King David School website, portal and newsletter will provide information to keep parents and carers informed of child safety and wellbeing commitments, procedures, and arrangements.

Expectation of our School staff and volunteers – Safeguarding Children and Young People Code of Conduct

At The King David School we expect School employees, volunteers, and contractors, to proactively ensure the safety and wellbeing of students, to identify concerns about child safety and wellbeing and to take appropriate action if there are concerns about the safety and wellbeing of any child at the school. All School staff must remain familiar with the relevant laws, the code of conduct, and policies and procedures in relation to child protection, and comply with all requirements. We have developed the Safeguarding Children and Young People Code of Conduct, which recognises the critical role that School staff play in protecting the students in our care and establishes clear expectations of School employees, volunteers, and contractors for appropriate behaviour with children to safeguard them against abuse and/or neglect.

Our Code also protects School staff and volunteers through clarification of acceptable and unacceptable behaviour. This is also elaborated on in the Staff and Student Professional Boundaries Guidelines.

Student safety and participation

At The King David School we actively encourage all students to openly express their views and feel comfortable about giving voice to the things that are important to them.

We teach students about what they can do if they feel unsafe and enable them to understand, identify, discuss, and report their concerns. We listen to and act on any concerns students, or their parents or carers, raise with us.

The curriculum design integrates appropriate knowledge and skills to enhance students' understanding of being safe, as well as their understanding of their rights to safety, information, and participation. Teaching and learning strategies that acknowledge and support student agency and voice are implemented. We ensure that students are offered access to sexual abuse prevention programs and to relevant related information in an age-appropriate way.

We have developed appropriate education about:

- standards of behaviour for students attending our School

- healthy and respectful relationships (including sexuality)
- resilience
- child abuse awareness and prevention

We have also developed curriculum planning documents that detail the strategies and actions the School takes to implement its obligations to ensure that:

- children and students are informed about all their rights, including to safety, information, and participation
- the importance of friendship is recognised and support from peers is encouraged, to help children and students feel safe and be less isolated
- staff and volunteers are attuned to signs of harm and facilitate child-friendly ways for children and students to express their views, participate in decision-making and raise their concerns
- we have strategies in place to develop a culture that facilitates participation and is responsive to the input of children and students
- we provide opportunities for children and students to participate and which are responsive to their contributions to strengthen confidence and engagement
- students are offered access to sexual abuse prevention programs and to relevant information in an age-appropriate way
- students may participate in SRC forums
- student feedback is sought through surveys

RELATED LEGISLATION

- Children, Youth and Families Act 2005 (Vic.)
  - Child Wellbeing and Safety Act 2005 (Vic.)
  - Worker Screening Act 2020 (Vic.)
  - Education and Training Reform Act 2006 (Vic.)
  - Education and Training Reform Regulations 2017 (Vic.)
  - Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (Vic.)
  - Privacy Act 1988 (Cth)
  - Public Records Act 1973 (Vic)
  - Crimes Act 1958 (Vic.) – Three new criminal offences have been introduced under this Act:
1. Failure to disclose offence: Any adult who forms a reasonable belief that a sexual offence has been committed by an adult against a child under 16 has an obligation to report that information to police. Failure to disclose the information to police is a criminal offence.
  2. Failure to protect offence: This offence will apply where there is a substantial risk that a child under the age of 16 under the care, supervision or authority of a relevant organisation will become a victim of a sexual offence committed by an adult associated with that organisation. A person in a position of authority in the organisation will commit the offence if they know of the risk of abuse and have the power or responsibility to reduce or remove the risk, but negligently fail to do so.
  3. Grooming offence: This offence targets predatory conduct designed to facilitate later sexual activity with a child. Grooming can be conducted in person or online, for example via interaction through social media, web forums and emails.

RELATED POLICIES

- Mandatory Reporting Policy May 2024
- Reportable Conduct Policy May 2024
- Positive Behaviours Policy June 2023
- School Complaints Handling Policy May 2024

RELATED DOCUMENTS

- Child Safe Standards: VRQA Readiness Check and Evidence Form
- Protect: Identifying and Responding to Abuse Reporting Obligations
- Four Critical Actions for Schools: Responding to Incidents, Disclosures and Suspicions of Child Abuse

- Safeguarding Children and Young People Code of Conduct May 2024
- Staff and Student Professional Boundaries May 2024

NEXT REVIEW

May 2026